

Relationship Building & Conflict Resolution

Do you want your kids to get along better and treat each other with kindness and respect? Can we empower kids with skills to build better relationships and help them stand up for themselves rather than rescue them? And what do we do when it is more serious and we need to intervene?

Join Jedd Hafer of the Love and Logic Institute to learn practical skills and ideas you can actually use to empower kids to deal with both minor and more serious issues involving conflict.

You will hear:

- How to empower kids with skills to get along with others
- When to step in
- What to do if your child is experiencing conflict

Jedd Hafer is a father of four, former comedian and a 20+ year veteran of working with kids in the foster care system. His presentations always contain a mix of humor, real stories and practical Love and Logic techniques.
